Cape May – Lewes Ferry to Host Car Show Part of Weekend Festival to Celebrate Cape May County's U.S.C.G. Community Designation

(Cape May, NJ) It's cruisin' time at the Cape May Ferry Terminal! On Sunday, May 7, the Cape May – Lewes Ferry will host a car show as part of the U.S. Coast Guard Festival activities at the Ferry Terminal in North Cape May, New Jersey. The car show will be held in the staging lot of the Cape May Toll Lanes from 9:00 AM until 12:30 PM. Staging will begin at 8:00 AM. The cost is $5 per vehicle and all proceeds benefit the Coast Guard Foundation.

"Come on out and show off your car in a fun atmosphere at the Cape May - Lewes Ferry Terminal," said Michael Porch, marketing manager for the Ferry. "With our expansive parking areas and waterfront views, a car show is a natural fit for the Ferry and the entry fee will aid the efforts of the Coast Guard Foundation!"

U.S. Coast Guard recruits will judge the car show. Porch noted that the car show is open to all vehicle makes and models. The car show will include the award categories Best of Show, Best Classic Car, and Best Muscle Car. The entry fee of $5 per vehicle benefits the Coast Guard Foundation. A special discount vehicle rate on the Ferry is available on a limited, first-come, first-served basis for those entrants coming over from Delaware. Space is limited. Car owners are encouraged to pre-register. To register, please call the Ferry's Guest Services at 800 643-3779.

Other activities scheduled for Sunday, May 7 at the Cape May Ferry Terminal include:

- U.S. Coast Guard Festival Breakfast – seatings at 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM is open to the public. The cost for the breakfast is $24 for adults, $14 for children. Reservations are required at 800.643.3779.
- Special performance by Coast Guard Recruit Band
- Irish step dancers
- Playground & Free Mini-Golf for the children!
- Magic show with Ken Northridge
- Special Awards Ceremony for Coast Guard - Coast Community Spouse of the Year, Youth Art Show, and more.

Cape May County has been designated by the U.S. Government as an official Coast Guard Community, one of only two counties in the U.S. to be so honored. A weekend celebratory festival starts Friday, May 5 - Sunday, May 7. For full festival details including Friday and Saturday events please visit coastguardcommunity.org

About the Cape May-Lewes Ferry

The Cape May – Lewes Ferry is owned and operated by the Delaware River and Bay Authority, a bi-state governmental agency created by Compact in 1962. The Ferry is open year-round and has carried more than 45 million passengers since its inception on July 1, 1964. In 2016, the ferry service, which connects Victorian Cape May, New Jersey, and historic Lewes, Delaware, transported approximately 275,000 vehicles and nearly 1 million passengers.
