Cape May – Lewes Ferry Hosts Escape the Cape Weekend Open Water Classic, Health Expo Set June 9; Triathlon Makes a Splash Sunday, June 10

LOWER TOWNSHIP, NJ -- On Sunday, June 10, athletes will test their mettle and resilience as they participate in the East Coast's premier, one-of-a-kind sporting event, the Escape the Cape Triathlon. The immensely popular Triathlon races will be preceded by the new Escape the Cape Open Water Classic swim events on Saturday, June 9. More than 2300 competitors will participate in the Escape the Cape weekend race events, which are presented by Inspira Health Network. The Delaware River and Bay Authority's Cape May Ferry Terminal in Lower Township, NJ will once again host these endurance events. Like previous events, all races will begin aboard a Cape May – Lewes Ferry vessel in the Delaware Bay.

Created by Stephen Del Monte, Founder/CEO of DelMoSports LLC., the sold-out Escape the Cape Triathlon was voted the Best Triathlon in the Mid-Atlantic & North East Regions and one of the top 5 Bucket List Races in the World. "It's the only one of its kind on the East Coast," Del Monte said. "Where else can a triathlete jump off a ferry boat to begin a race? There is only one Escape the Cape!"

Del Monte added that a free smartphone app – complete with all the course maps, live athlete tracking, and complete schedule – is available now on Apple's App and Google Play. The DelMoSports Elite Events app also allows athletes and participants to get notifications and updates like the first person off the boat, the first runner off the course, and much more to help one better follow the race. Download the DelMoSports Elite Events app today to stay as updated as possible on the events!

To begin the races, athletes will board the ferry and journey out into the Delaware Bay where they will jump off the ferry and into the water. The first event, a Sprint Triathlon, consists of a .35 mile swim, 12 mile bike, and 5k run while the later Olympic Triathlon is a 1 mile swim, 23 mile bike, and 5 mile run. The bike and running portions start and end at the Cape May terminal.

The Escape the Cape weekend will also feature the new Escape the Cape Open Water Classic swim event Saturday morning at 7:00 a.m. and a free Kid's Fun Run for children of all ages later in the day. The open water swim is available in 3 mile and 1 mile distances. The special fun run takes place at 3:00 p.m. at the Ferry terminal. Registration, which will be available until 2:45 p.m. on race day, is free and located on the Ferry Lawn next to the main stage.

Also on Saturday, a special Escape the Cape Expo, featuring nearly 30 vendors, will be held on the terminal green from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The expo is free and open to the public. Attendees can get nutrition and health information, visit a sports psychologist, and enjoy presentations from health and exercise industry experts. In addition to this, several vendors will be showcasing locally made products. Numerous products related to the health and fitness industry will be on sale, including bicycle gear, swimming and running gear, triathlon-related clothing and apparel and much more.

Food and beverages will be available on the Terminal Green both days and the Ferry's newly renovated "On the Rocks" bar and grill will be open with its full menu of tasty treats and delicious entrees available.

Heath Gehrke, Director of Ferry Operations, noted that the Ferry strives to host activities and major events at its terminals or on its vessels. "The ferry is not only a fun, relaxing way to travel across the Delaware Bay, but we also have the perfect waterfront venue for mega-events like concerts, festivals and triathlons," Gehrke said. "It has been a pleasure to work with DelMoSports and Lower Township to make this one-of-a-kind event happen six years in a row."
